

Theme - Attitudes
Don't discriminate – Respect peoples' differences e.g. don't tolerate bullying/ sexism/ racism or homophobia.
Pupils and staff treated equally and with respect
Represent the school well when out in the community
Be tolerant and find non-aggressive ways of resolving differences
Take responsibility for your own actions
We expect staff and pupils to be kind to one another
Everyone has a right to be spoken to politely.
Make sure you show respect by arriving to your lessons on time to avoid disruption. Likewise, staff should be ready to teach on time with resources ready for use with the class.
Learners have the right to respect, and with this right, they have responsibility for ensuring their actions are respectful to others
No vandalism
Always listen to others – Staff/ pupils/parents/visitors to the school
Never belittle others
Focus
Respect yourself and others
Respect others views
Take everyone's' opinion into account
Treat people how you would like to be treated
Be kind to others
Help other people in school and in the community
Good manners – please/thank you/ open doors
Have a positive attitude – come to school prepared to learn
Be polite
Honesty in all dealings with others
Laugh with people not at them
Appreciate what others do for you
Be friendly
Take pride in your appearance
We expect others to help those in need
Be considerate of others people's feelings
Don't be judgemental or over critical
Highlight peoples qualities, not their flaws
Do not stand by and do nothing if you see someone being treated unfairly
Everyone should strive to be the best they can be
Teachers and pupils acknowledging one another's value
Do one nice thing for someone every day.
POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR PRAISED
Offer feedback in a helpful way
Show people that you appreciate their help / effort
See mistakes as an opportunity to learn
If a someone can't get on with another at least be respectful to that person
To achieve respectful learning, there has to be respectful teaching and respectful management being demonstrated throughout the entire school